

FACULTY POSITIONS IN HEALTH AND INDUSTRIAL/ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

The Old Dominion University Psychology Department invites applications for two faculty positions to begin August 2010. These positions are expected to be filled at the Professor or Associate Professor level, but exceptional junior applicants with peer-reviewed grant support will be considered.

HEALTH psychology with an emphasis in public health, occupational health, behavioral medicine, clinical or social health psychology;

INDUSTRIAL/ORGANIZATIONAL psychology, open with regard to research interests.

Successful candidates must have a Ph.D. in Psychology and a demonstrated record of an outstanding research program, as evidenced by publications and peer-reviewed research funding, and excellence in teaching and mentoring undergraduate and graduate students.

The Psychology Department currently includes 24 faculty members, offers four doctoral programs (Ph.D. in Applied Experimental, Human Factors, and Industrial/Organizational and Psy.D. in Clinical) and a terminal MS in General Experimental Psychology and has approximately 120 graduate students and 900 undergraduate majors. The Department is supported by peer-reviewed grants from the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, Department of Defense, Office of Naval Research, NASA, and the VA Department of Health and has active collaborative relationships with Eastern Virginia Medical School; the National Center for Collaboration in Medical Modeling and Simulation; the Virginia Modeling, Analysis and Simulation Center; the Naval Health Center at Portsmouth; Norfolk State University; and the Human Performance Center of the US Navy.

Interested candidates should submit curriculum vitae, statements of research and teaching accomplishments, and three letters of reference to: Psychology Search Committee, Department of Psychology, Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA 23529. Screening of applicants will begin November 30, 2009 and will continue until the position is filled. Old Dominion University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and requires compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.