

Postdoctoral Fellowship in Alcohol Research at the University of Washington

The fellowship will provide training for individuals who wish to pursue a career in alcohol research, with an emphasis on the etiology and prevention of problem drinking and alcohol dependence. For more information please see our website:

<http://depts.washington.edu/cshrb/newweb/postdoc.html>

We anticipate openings for 1 or 2 positions. This is a two-year appointment, commencing no earlier than July 1, 2010 and no later than December 31, 2010, within the Department of Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences and the Addictive Behaviors Research Center in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Washington, and is funded by the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (Principal Investigator, Mary Larimer; Co-Investigators, Drs. G. Alan Marlatt, and Ilene Bernstein). This fellowship will provide training for individuals who wish to pursue a career in alcohol research, with an emphasis on the etiology and prevention of problem drinking and alcohol dependence. As this topic will be approached from both psychosocial and biobehavioral perspectives, individuals with background training in relevant areas of psychology (clinical, health psychology, behavioral neuroscience, social, developmental, cognitive, behavioral pharmacology, etc.) are encouraged to apply. Applicants should submit a cover letter indicating areas of interest, CV, and three letters of recommendation to tw33@u.washington.edu by February 1, 2010. Please also submit a hardcopy to Theresa Walter, Postdoctoral Psychology Training in Alcohol Research Program, Center for the Study of Health and Risk Behaviors, 1100 NE 45th Street, Suite 300, University of Washington Box 354944, Seattle, WA 98195. The UW is committed to training culturally diverse research fellows and strongly encourages applications from female and minority candidates. The University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Due to the Federal Guidelines only applicants who are national citizens or current green card holders will be considered.